

INTEGRATED POLICY OF QUALITY, ENVIRONMENT AND OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY (OHS)

The long-term strategic intent of the organization PLAKOR CZECH, s. r. o. is flawless meet the requirements and expectations of customers in complying with legislative and other regulations. Our organization puts maximum emphasis on understanding the customer's requirements to ensure all their needs , and these needs are filled at the highest possible level. We hope that all customers have confidence in us and we turned to us with your requirements .

The quality of our products and processes implemented demonstrate with creating, maintaining and improving the integrated management system (IMS) according to ISO/TS 16949, ISO 14001 and OHSAS 18001. We recognize that employees create values of the organization , therefore we place great emphasis on professional development . In addition to staff with many years of experience in the industry also employ workers who are at the beginning of his professional career. Thus we want to combine experience with new trends. From our employees we educate professionals, organize technical seminars, certified courses and training.

The company management puts great emphasis on compliance with the quality management system, environment , health and safety for all employees and regulatory compliance . Fulfilling the long-term and short-term goals of quality, environment and occupational health and safety gives us great expectations. Planning and compliance with the financial resources of the organization is essential to have created additional resources for the continued development of the organization.

We pay attention to the maximum use of the latest technology, and therefore, all production processes are monitored by reliable information systems. In particular, we focus on the prevention of environmental pollution and even beyond these requirements and to work safely and minimize risks.

We are committed to the implementation of an integrated policy of quality, environment and occupational health and safety as part of a long-term strategy.

Given the nature of our production management organization attaches great importance to the commitment of continuous improvement of all processes in accordance with the above standards and to maximize the reduction and prevention of pollution of the environment, prevention of accidents , injury and improving performance in OHS.

In Mošnov by the day: 5th August 2013

Prepared by: Šárka Šmatelková

ISO Specialist

Approved by: Chung Woo Han

Manager QC

Jana Rumanová

Management representative of QC, environment and OHSAS

Seok Woo Lee

President CEO

